

Jaguar News

Tri-County Early College

September 17, 2019

Folk School JAM

Folk School Junior Appalachian Music (JAM) offers students in grades 9-12 the opportunity to learn guitar, banjo or fiddle, or to practice in a string band and connect to the musical heritage of rural Appalachia. This after-school music program is held every Monday & Wednesday at Tri-County Early College from 3:30-5 pm September 23 through April 10 and it is free of charge.

JAM is made possible by support from North Carolina Arts Council, Musack, and John C. Campbell Folk School. For more info or to enroll, visit the Folk School JAM Facebook page. Space is limited.

REMINDERS

 Friday will be Intramurals! Sign-up sheets will be posted Thursday at lunch. Seniors and Aviation students should not sign up.

 Extended Days have begun. Teachers will be available Mondays and Thursdays 2:45-4:00pm in the Commons. If you need extra help or support in any of your high school classes, take advantage of this free resource. Extended Day schedule is as follows:

Mondays – Chambers, Crayton, Haigler

Thursdays – Byrne, Gaines, Meiners, Pendarvis

WASHINGTON, DC TRIP

TCEC is considering a schoolwide trip to Washington, DC this year. The trip will occur March 4-7 and the cost will be $495. Those interested should sign up at the front office no later than this Thursday, September 19th. A minimum of 40 students will be required for this trip to happen.

JAGUAR UPDATES

Bus Driver Needed

TCEC is looking for a parent who might be willing to obtain their bus license to help with our field trips, athletic games, etc. If anyone is interested in doing so, please contact Mrs. Cheek. A bus class will be held next week in Clay County.

Some people dream of success while others get up every morning and make it happen.

- Wayne Huizenga

Cross Country This Week

Sydney Bolyard continues to dominate the Smoky Mountain conference, winning first place again on Saturday in Cherokee! Lucy Crayton and Ever Joy Templeton ran solid times, and Faith Ward deserves a high five for running her first race!

Our boys had a strong meet, with Sage Sorensen, Dylan DiCicco, Chase McKnight and Derek DiCicco all running their best times of the season. Sage, Dylan and Will Crayton are really pushing each other and trading off for who finishes first on the team.

Come and watch the team run Wednesday at Fields of the Woods! The meet starts at 5.30 for high school boys, and girls start at 6.

Run Jaguars!

